

Electronic Mail Disclaimer

- This e-mail transmission contains privileged and confidential information, which is the property of the sender.
- The contents in the e-mail together with any attachments are for the exclusive attention of the addressee.
- Should you not be the addressee, you are hereby notified that the information contained in this e-mail and attachments are not for your attention or information and should be deleted without taking notice of the contents thereof.
- Garden Route District Municipality hereby also notifies you that any disclosure, duplication, distribution and any reliance on information contained in this e-mail and attachments are strictly prohibited.
- Garden Route District Municipality will not be liable to any person [natural or otherwise] for any direct or indirect, special or consequential damages for acting on information contained in this email, even if Garden Route District Municipality has been advised of the possibility of such damages, if the information does not come from the office of the Municipal Manager as the Accounting Officer of the municipality.
- This e-mail disclaimer will at all times take precedence over any e-mail disclaimer received by employees utilizing the communications facilities of Garden Route District Municipality.
- Any e-mail send to Garden Route District Municipality will deemed to be received by the addressee upon reply from the Municipal Manager.
- The views and opinions expressed in e-mails are not necessarily that of the Municipality if it does not comes from the office of the Municipal Manager as the accounting officer of the Municipality.